The item, "Honolulu harbor, $250,000," was accidentally omitted yesterday in publishing the schedule of Hawaiian appropriations recommended in the President's message, though explanatory remarks about it appeared.

The friends of Bishop and Mrs. Restarick will be pleased to learn that a cablegram was received from Boston yesterday containing the reassuring intelligence that, in the opinion of Dr. Leavitt, an operation upon their son will not be necessary. Herbert Young has returned from San Francisco, where he unsuccessfully tried to get insurance companies practically interested in his electrical invention for locating submerged wrecks. With regard to the sunken steamer Rio de Janeiro, it was not disbelieved in Young's device which held them aloof, but because they believed the wreck was in such deep water that the profit of raising it would be doubtful.

It is reported that every plantation on Kauai is grinding sugar of the new crop. Sugar is piling up in the various warehouses awaiting shipment. Makaweli had 5380 bags on hand yesterday, and the K. S. company 4300 bags. Purser Grube of the steamer Nihau reports the following sugar on hand at Kauai plantations: K. S. M., 1000 bags; V. K., 800; Mak., 5380; G. & R., 366; McB., 675; K. S. Co., 4300; total 12,521 bags.

Taking his load in his hands and finding it rather hard to carry Charles Mitchell went down to the police station last night to announce, aloud and somewhat profanely, that he could not be arrested. Charles found out in about two minutes that he was laboring under a very serious misapprehension. Also he was mistaken when he asserted that Turnkey Melanphy could not search him. In fact it was Mr. Mitchell's evening of delusion. Probably he had seen the new moon, or a couple of them, over his left shoulder.
